About PRECI

Professionals and Researchers in Early Childhood Intervention (PRECI) is the peak body for professionals and researchers in the Early Childhood Intervention sector. PRECI is a not-for-profit Australian organisation that has been formed by a national coalition of early childhood intervention service practitioners and university researchers.

PRECI is an ACNC-recognised charity and has Deductible Gift Recipient (DGR) Status.

Purpose

Our purpose is to lead Australian early childhood intervention research, knowledge translation, quality practice, and policy for children with developmental disabilities.

PRECI aims to support and develop connection between early childhood intervention professionals and researchers: supporting research to practice, knowledge sharing, collaborative research, and peer support in relation to the provision of high-quality evidence-informed early childhood intervention services.
